Sealite to Sponsor 2021 Colorado River Law Enforcement Annual Conference

Tilton, New Hampshire, USA – December 31, 2020 – Sealite USA will sponsor the Colorado River Law Enforcement Association Annual Conference. This year's event will be held virtually on January 27, 2021.

The event brings together local, state, and federal public safety and law enforcement officials along with their civilian contemporaries from states bordering the Colorado River. The conference objective is to facilitate interagency communication, planning, and coordination to benefit the boating public. Officials from Utah, Arizona, Nevada, and California work to reduce boating fatalities, injuries, and property damage, improve boating safety through interstate cooperation, provide uniform boating laws, educate the public.

Sealite is a USA manufacturer of buoys, marine lanterns, and related aids to navigation (AtoNs) to enhance the safety of navigation. In-house manufacturing, design, engineering, and multi-lingual customer support allows Sealite to provide high quality, affordable, and low maintenance marking solutions for almost every national agency. Sealite is also a member of the National Association of State Boating Law Administrators.

Contact Jason Wernig, Sealite USA Business Development Manager, to discuss your 2021 marking requirements, or to set up a personal presentation. Jason may be contacted at:
